NUMB. 2282

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15. 1742.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from France.

Extract from the Paris Alamain.

Paris, Oct. 20.

WE learn by a Courier dispatch'd by Marshal Broglio to the King, that the Count de Saxe, who commanded the Vanguard of the Army, had taken the Town of Ellenbogen, in which were five Pieces of Cannon, and a Body of 4630 Men, Croats and Pandours, and 160 Hussars, under the Command of a Major-General. The same Courier reports, That Marshal Broglio was to encamp on the 11th at Falkenaw, from which he had driven a Detachment of 1200 Hussars. We are assured, that tho' the Taking of this Place be no considerable Thing in itself, it will be found such in its Consequences, as it renders more safe and easy the Communication between Egra and Prague.'

The Reader cannot but perceive that this Paragraph is remarkably dark, as to the Taking of Ellenbogen, which is so expressed, as to insinuate that the Body of Croats and Pandours in Possession of it, were taken as well as the Town; which, however, is false, and the whole Affair no more than this, That those irregular Troops quitted the Place, on the Approach of a superior Force. The latter Part of the Paragraph is a Piece of Prophetick Intelligence, which, perhaps, may never come to pass.

'We have certain Intelligence, that the Imperialists 'have made themselves Masters of the Austrian Military 'Chest. On the 7th, 4000 Imperialists enter'd the Town 'of Munich, where they were received by the Inhabi'tants with the utmost Joy, as their Deliverers from the 'insupportable Yoke of the Austrians, under which they 'had groan'd for upwards of Nine Months. On the 9th 'they received Advice, of 5000 Men having re-joined 'Marshal Minucci, who was sent to cut off the Retreat 'of the Austrians, which they have since had the agree'able News he has effectually performed, by giving 'them an entire Defeat.'

This Story of the military Chest was first written from Franckfort, and it was then said that this Treasure amounted to 400,000 Florins; but this News was never confirm'd, and indeed we have it from better Hands, that it was the Chest only of a single Regiment; so that we must take off a Couple of Cyphers, if we would come at the true Sum. The Defeat of the Austrians is altogether imaginary; General Berenclau did not retire in a Hurry, but with all imaginable Precaution, and withdrew his Forces towards Passau. These flimsey Inventions are as necessary at Paris to amuse the People, as a Nurse's idle Tales to quiet froward Children.

'Last Week the Captain of the Robbers who have as'sassinated People in the Streets, was arrested, and a Par'don has been promised him, upon condition that he 'made a franck Discovery of all his Accomplices, in or'der to which they confronted with him all the Persons 'who have been lately taken up. Amongst these there 'was a Lad, about 13, who declared, that he alone had 'committed very many of the Murders which have of 'late so much alarmed this City.

HOME PORTS.

Deal, Oct. 13. Wind S. W. The Shrewsbury Man of War sailed for the River this Morning. Put back and remain, the Falmouth Man of War and several of the outward-bound Ships. Came down the Neptune Tender.

Arrived

At Boston, the Bridgetown, ——, from Barbados.

Off of the Isle of Wight, the Rainbow, Owen, from Antigua.

In the River, the Dispatch, Cheik, from Jamaica.

LONDON.

Letters from Berlin, Oct. 13, say, that the Court had received Advice from Vienna of the Queen of Hungary's absolutely rejecting the last Propositions made by France, but that a private Treaty was still carried on with the Court of Franckfort; which Intelligence gave great Satisfaction to the Prussian Court.

The new General of the Spanish Troops in Italy, the Count de Gages, is much more inflexible than the Duke de Montemar, and has declar'd his Resolution to execute the Orders of his Court, notwithstanding the warmest Representations from his Holiness.

By private Letters from Prague, which have been written to several Persons at Paris, it appears, that the Marshal Bellisle commands in that City a Garison of 9000 Men, that the Duke de Biron is in the utmost Danger from his Wounds, and that an epidemical Disease began to rage in the Place.

The Camp now forming in the Neighbourhood of Brussels will consist it is said of near 50,000 Men, of which the French seem to have had very exact Intelligence, since they have sent Orders to twelve Battallions, which were on their March from Dunkirk to Alsace, to halt.

The Spaniards since their entring Savoy have burnt several Villages which refused to pay them Contributions; which has irritated the King of Sardinia extremely.

According to several Letters from the Head-Quarters of Marshal Maillebois near Culm, it appears, That the Junction between his Forces and those of Marshal Broglio was to have been made at Saatz; which, according to our last Advices from the Austrian Army, had been seized by Colonel Mentzel with his Hussars, and that General Festititz was in full March to support him.

On the 12th instant, N. S. Publick Proclamation was made in the City of Lipswick, as there had been already at Dresden, and thro' the other Cities of Saxony, forbidding the Subjects of that Electorate to furnish Provisions of any Kind for the Use of the French Army in Bohemia.

The same Letters say, That Abundance of the Jews were retired from Prague into Saxony, who reported, That during the Siege of the City there died of Hunger 3000 of the Inhabitants, and 2000 of the French, at least.

Several German Officers arriving lately at Franckfort from Prague, acknowledge the Truth of all the foregoing Particulars; and add, That the Inhabitants were, for a considerable Space of Time, reduced to the sad Necessity of feeding upon Cats and Dogs; but they agree, that the Austrian Bombs and Bullets did very little Damage, most of them falling into the Moldau.

The Army of Marshal Maillebois, on October 1. N.S. consisted of 66 Battalions, and 112 Squadrons; and that of the Austrians, of 28 Regiments of Foot, and 29 of Cuirassiers and Dragoons; besides eight Regiments of Hussars, and the Forces under the Command of General Festetitz.

The Young Neptune, Winter, from London for Jamaica, was taken by a Spanish Privateer going into Madeira.

The ——, Newson, from Madeira for Mountsbay, is likewise taken by a Spanish Privateer; and, with the Young Neptune, carried into the Canaries.

The James and John, Burt, from Milford for London, is taken near Beachy, and is carried into Havredegrace.

Yesterday a very considerable Train of small Field-pieces, called Gallopers, were shipped from the Tower for Antigua and the rest of the Leeward Islands.

We hear from Royston, that a few Days since a Cave thirty Foot deep, was accidentally discovered by some Workmen, in digging a Hole to fix a Post in at the Market-Cross in the said Town, wherein they found a Millstone, and under it a Hole big enough for a Man to slide down. The Hole is in the Shape of a Bell, and is eighteen Foot Diameter at the Bottom. There is a Representation of our Saviour on the Cross, and two Women standing by him, in a praying Posture; our Saviour in the Manger, and a Man holding a Child in his Arms, and a Woman standing by; which is supposed to represent Joseph and the Virgin Mary going into Egypt. Also Twelve Men in a Row, and several other Figures, which at present they cannot account for.

This Day his Grace the Duke of Richmond, Master of the Horse to the King, gives a grand Entertainment to the Duke d'Aremberg, Minister from the Queen of Hungary, who arrived here on Tuesday Night last, and to several other Persons of Distinction, at his House in Privy-Garden.

Last Night the Right Hon. the Lord Torrington arrived at his House at Whitehall, from Ireland.

On Wednesday last the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor held the First General Seal at Lincoln's-Inn Hall, before Michaelmas-Term, when a Grant passed the Great Seal to Joseph Smith, Esq; of the Office of Serjeant at Arms in Ordinary to wait on his Majesty's Royal Person.

As did also a Dispensation to enable the Rev. Thomas Hutchinson, D. D. to hold the Vicarage of Cocking, in the County of Sussex and Diocese of Chichester, together with the Vicarage of Horsham, in the County and Diocese aforesaid.

Yesterday at the Sessions at the Old Baily, Eighteen Prisoners were try'd, of whom Three were capitally convicted, viz.

Thomas Homan, the Baker's Apprentice, for the Murder of Susanna Dix, in Fetter-lane; whose Trial was to have come on last Sessions, but postpon'd on account of his being so ill of the Jayl-distemper that he could not be brought up to be arraign'd;

Robert Budd, for breaking the House of Mr. Samuel Saunders, a Linen-draper in Bridgwater-gardens, and stealing thence Goods to the Value of 60 l; and,

William Dixon, for stealing a Silver Tankard, Value 7 l. out of the Dwelling-house of Mr. —— Aldin. He was apprehended in the County of Bedford, and brought by Habeas Corpus to Newgate.

Six were cast for Transportation, and Nine acquitted.
